

Explorers' eConference: "Digging Deep"

Today Boardroomradio releases it's second eConference of 2009. The title of the eConference is "Digging Deep" and features presentations from ASX listed Mineral Explorers who are surviving the tough credit conditions and differentiating themselves from their competitors with the quality of their projects.

Sarah-Jane Tasker (Resources and Mining) from The Australian will provide an insightful keynote speech at 8:30am. To access the eConference simply click on the link below:
